OB Jazz Festival . . . Terrific!

Headliner Clark Terry (photo by Joe Ewing)

The 2nd Annual OB Jazz Festival . . .

held on Sept. 10th was a huge success. The Jazz 88 committee worked with the OBMA for the last six months to make this event a reality. The weather could not have been more perfect. Where else can you sit and listen to real jazz with the waves lapping up on the shore next to you. People came from all over and thoroughly enjoyed Ocean Beach.

Many thanks to our OBMA volunteers for spending hours working with us in the OBMA booth. . . Mike Akey, Craig Gerwig, & Mark Schlesinger. Also, the OB Town Council shared our booth and helped us sell water . . . Thanks to Jim Musgrove, Barb Schmidtconnect, Mark Shields and Jeri Ryan, and OB Community Foundation's Cheryl Troncellito. We are really looking forward to the 3rd Annual OB Jazz Festival on September 9th, 2007.

We are happily accepting financial help for maintaining the Police Trailer in the pier parking lot. As you may know, the OBMA has paid for the trailer and its upkeep for many years and will continue to do so . . . However, we could really use some help.

The OB Community Foundation has offered to accept tax deductible donations specifically for maintaining the police trailer. If you would like to help, please send your checks to:

OB Community Foundation, PO Box 7914, San Diego, CA 92167 and specify that you want the donation to go to Police Trailer Maintenance. Thanks so much for your help.
